Local Heritage Assets

Chandlers Cottage, Croft Hill Road

Description:

Huncote Mill, Croft Hill Road
Description: More information available via http://www.huncote-pc.gov.uk/millers.html
Mill House, Croft Hill Road
Description: The Mill House was left empty for some years before being renovated by former owners in ______.

Former minerals line

Description: This old rail line used to help the quarrymen move materials from one area of the quarry to another.
Old School House, Brook Street

6 Brook Street (The Thatched Cottage)

Description: A Grade II listed building.

The Old Chapel, Cheney End

The PrimitiveMethodists built a chapel in Huncote in 1874.
Baptist Chapel, Main Street

The Baptist Chapel was built in 1876 with seating for 200 people. A schoolroom was added in 1898. After the second World War, it was used by part of the village school. In 1953 the chapel had been closed and taken over by a hosiery company (Pick's) but from 1957 until 1961, part of it was again used by the overcrowded school.

Sources: Trade Directories; Old Huncote, Michael Tanner
Red Lion PH

Description: Excellent village pub, with large car park and beer garden to rear. Various details available via http://www.huncote-pc.gov.uk/alehouses-of-huncote.html
Huncote

The Pinfold, Main Street
Description: Various information available via http://www.huncote-pc.gov.uk/the-pinfold.html
Triangle of cottages on Forest Road/Narborough Road/Main Street/Brook Street crossroads
Description: A relatively new church, built in 1907. The new church cost £1050. It was designed to seat 220 and it is still in use today.
The Methodist Church has a church hall to the rear with large room, kitchen office and bathroom facilities and also accommodates the village community library. Wheelchair and disabled access is provided.
Details are available via http://www.huncote-pc.gov.uk/places-of-worship.html and
St James the Greater Church Hall, Narborough Road

Description: The Church Hall is located on Narborough Road, Huncote, Leicestershire LE9 3AW, next to the church. A Hall and meeting room, provides wheelchair and disabled access and limited off-road parking, with kitchen and bathroom facilities. Available for hire. More information available via http://www.huncote-pc.gov.uk/st-james-the-greater-huncote.html.

St James the Greater Church, Narborough Road

The Stone, Narborough Road
Description: